

MannAboutTown

MARCH 2009

Fountain Gallery's Seventh Annual Celebration Of Life

Fountain Gallery, the premier venue in New York City representing artists with mental illness, honored David Arena, President of Grubb & Ellis New York, and Leslie Harwood, Managing Director of Newmark Knight Frank, with the Esther Montanez Leadership Award for outstanding service to the Gallery at its Seventh Annual Celebration of Life benefit at the Grand Hyatt New York. More than 400 guests viewed 100 original artworks displayed for sale by Fountain Gallery artists who are members of Fountain House, an internationally renowned organization providing resources for people with mental illness.

Dario Gristina, Chairman and CEO of Genergy, is Founding Chair of Celebration of Life. The evening's Co-Chairs were: Peter DiCapua, Chief Operating Officer, Atco Properties & Management, Inc.; Rick Froio, Principal, Atlas-Acon Electric Service Corp.; John McGinley, Vice President and Director of Management Services, Grubb & Ellis New York; Bruce Mosler, President and Chief Executive Officer, Cushman & Wakefield; Betsy Seidman, Fountain House board member; and Andrew Stenzler, Co-Founder and Co-Chairman, Kidville, LLC.

Co-Chairs John McGinley and Rick Froio, Honoree Leslie Harwood, Founding Chair Dario Gristina, Co-Chair Betsy Seidman, Honoree David Arena, and Co-Chair Peter DiCapua

Honoree Leslie Harwood, Fountain House President Kenn Dudek, and Honoree David Arena

Rep. Jerrold Nadler

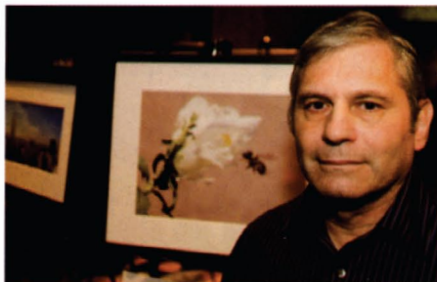

Marcia Moosnick with Fountain Gallery artist Vladimir Nikolski

Co-Chairs Andrew Stenzler and Betsy Seidman, and Founding Chair Dario Gristina

Jill Martin and Beth Ostrovsky

Fountain Gallery artist Leonard Aschenbrand

Fountain Gallery artist Jonathan Glass sketches art for auction

Silda Wall Spitzer, Barbaralee Diamonstein-Spielvogel, and Fountain House board Chair Alexandra Herzan